

The Farinelli family lives in a small country of the Venetian countryside 90 km. From Venice.

They chose this quiet tired resort of the hectic life of the great city of Milan. Their home is surrounded by a large garden where two dogs and three cats live. Adriano, his father, has organized a group of friends who have recovered the ancient Italian folk tradition of figure theater: The BURATTINI, with whom he runs in neighboring countries to propose square shows to children at local festivals.

Anna, a former elementary school teacher, has torn her passion for painting, creative sewing and embroidery. He mainly depicts images of his territory and flowers that he personally cultivates. It mainly depicts images of its territory and flowers that he personally cultivates, such as the lavender contained in these bags.

Maria Selene, her daughter, after graduating and mastering at the Academy of the Verona Opera, is starting her profession in the context of the direction of opera.